

Camden adult community learning

Study for a qualification

Join a choir

Connect

Find out what's on in local museums and galleries and arrange to visit with friends

Get back in touch with old friends and family members (Facebook/Skype)

Look for online courses

Find out what's on at your local college or learning centre

Go to school meetings for parents

Read regularly with your child

Get involved in your children's learning

Make the most of your Camden Account

Parking issues

Housing issues

Pay council tax

What next?
Where will your new skills, knowledge and confidence take you?

Talk to your child's teacher about how you can help

Find out about active health activities provided by the Council

Be active; Improve your health

Join a dance or exercise class

Walk more

Find a job

Register with Universal Jobmatch

Improve your prospects at work – look out for training opportunities

Be an adult learning champion

Try a new recipe

Explore the digital world – learn a new skill on YouTube

Find out what's on at your local library

Keep learning

Teach someone else your new skill

Help out at events in your child's school

Give back

Volunteer in your local community centre

Join a club or society

Try a different adult learning course

Learning takes place at the heart of our communities.